

AuCMS

Complete intranet, extranet and web site management

AuCMS is a complete management solution for intranets, extranets and web sites. The AuCMS server is built for the Windows Server environment and may be deployed on Windows 2000 Server or Windows 2003 Server and requires SQL Server 2000.

Key benefits

- Full support for all browser-based content
- Windows integrated security
- Task-oriented CMS user interface
- Usage auditing
- Version-based content management
- Content management system separated from live intranet / web site
- Fully extensible CMS application architecture
- Low cost infrastructure requirements
- Low cost deployment and maintenance
- Low training costs

Feature list

- Browser-based user interface
- Windows integrated authentication
- Role based CMS user management
- Fine-grained permission control for content and features
- Support for standard web content types
- Support for dynamic browser-based applications
- Template driven site generation
- Content association tracking
- Simple to use content editor interface
- CMS content search engine
- CMS content bookmarks
- Content import and export
- Scheduled content
- Scheduled content reminders workflow
- Publishing approval workflow
- One-click publishing
- Interactive intranet / web site components
- CMS access auditing
- CMS activity auditing
- Web/extranet site version rollback

Further Information

For further information please see <http://www.neoworks.com/aucms/> or contact NeoWorks on +44 (0)20 70250950.